

Links

We invite you to visit some of the sites we are proud to support. Sage Mentors Inc. are proud to announce that we are working in collaboration with EQmentor, Inc., a professional development firm that focuses on Emotional Intelligence (EQ) through a very high-tech on-line mentoring program that is custom-matched, anonymous, and asynchronous with unique parameters of engagement. The mentoring is complemented by the EQ Village - a cross-industry peer collaboration area that focuses on workplace topics. The EQ Village also grants access to a database of over 9000 peer-reviewed journals relevant to the workplace, as well as In Joy Media's Inner Espresso® - the latest in inspirational short videos from industry-leading thought leaders, authors and CEOs from around the world. Collectively, the myriad of learning forums create a powerful learning environment that cater to the cornerstone of adult learning - point-of-need based learning. Learn when you need to, how you want to, anytime, from anywhere, in a safe and trusted environment. If you are interested in learning more about how your organization can become part of this new and innovative program please contact info@sagementors.com

The Mentoring Partnership Offers occupation specific mentoring to skilled immigrants. Sage Mentors proudly designed this Award Winning mentoring program. The Canadian Association of Management Consultants Fosters excellence and integrity, and is an advocate for the CMC designation. Catherine Mossop, President of Sage Mentors, was named Fellow to the CMC designation. BC Human Resources Management Association BC HRMA's programs and services provide leadership to over 3,700 members and 2,500 affiliates with an interest in human resources management, issues and practices. The BC HRMA Professional Mentoring Program (PMP) links an established human resources professional with an emerging HR practitioner, orienting, training, and guiding both participants through the relationship resulting in an enhancement of their professional development and a smooth integration into the HR community in British Columbia. KMP & Partners Partners to develop leaders, talents and organizations aligned with the vision, goals, strategies and culture of the organization, with a focus on mentoring. Sage Mentors is a partner with KMP+. Clutterbuck Associates Located in the UK and lead by Prof. David Clutterbuck, it provides mentoring and coaching program support. Expertise also covers Board Development, Learning Teams and Diversity. The Mentor News The Mentor News is a service of Peer Resources available at no cost to subscribers. It is typically delivered by email every 45-60 days. It is an opt-in-only newsletter and requires a request to subscribe. Subscriptions can be obtained by sending an email to thementoringnews@mentors.ca and requesting a subscription. The International Mentoring Association

The IMA exists to facilitate growth and development through best practices in mentoring. The IMA is housed at Western Michigan University and serves members from a broad cross-section of individuals in public and private institutions and business and industry, all of whom support and promote planned mentoring. Membership is open to all individuals who actively support the objectives of the Association.

The National Youth Orchestra of Canada Sage Mentors Inc. is proud to be a supporter, and have served on the Board of Directors, of the NYOC since 2004. In almost 40 years, the NYOC has become an internationally renowned and respected training ground for young orchestral musicians. Your logo goes here! Would you like to link to our site? Email info@sagementors.com